

The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society (LLS) launched its Co-Pay Assistance Program in 2007 to assist blood cancer patients with out-of-pocket expenses for medical insurance premiums and treatment-related co-payments, deductibles and co-insurance.

LLS has a steadfast commitment to compliance.

LLS is committed to operating its Co-Pay Assistance Program to the highest standard of compliance, adhering to all applicable federal regulations and guidance issued by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Office of Inspector General (OIG). The LLS Co-Pay Assistance Program operates free from any direct or indirect donor influence or control, and in accordance with LLS's OIG Advisory Opinion #06-13 as well as all OIG Special Advisory Bulletins related to Independent Charity Patient Assistance Programs:

- LLS conducts quarterly internal audits and commissions annual independent compliance audits to ensure that its Co-Pay Assistance Program operates within the guidelines established by its OIG Opinion and the OIG Special Advisory Bulletins Related to Independent Charitable Patient Assistance Programs.
- LLS requires that all staff, Board oversight committee members, and vendors complete annual compliance training including the Anti-Kickback Statute and the Federal False Claims Act.

LLS is committed to a best in class experience for patients, providers and pharmacists.
